DEDICATION

MR. ROBERT SHAW

Because you have been our Senior Class Advisor --- because you helped make our Yearbook and Senior Trip possible --- because you have a spark of humor --- because you have always been "Doc" to us --- because you can teach almost any subject --- we would like this dedication to show how much we appreciate all you have done for us.

PROPHECY

Lee Bartlett - Lee got his life pass to the ski tow. (All he has to do now is get some skis and learn how to ski.)

Robert Bovee - Has been working at the Mohawk Carpet Mill for 10 years and is still saving money for a new NASH.

Anne De Golyer - Has graduated from Albany Business College, but has long since given up a business career to get married. (To Harley???)

Hugh Elliott - Working at Wagner's market and is earning millions of dollars.

Albert Ellis - Living in his happy home on Eighth Avenue in Gloversville. (Guess who this is).

Jeanne Grassette - Has graduated from Albany Business College and is now an admiral in the Navy. (Oh those lucky sailors).

Carl Hollenbeck - Has graduated from college and now has his own garage at Paradise Point. (Still wondering why that Cadillac runs so well.)

Joan Johnson - Has graduated from Albany Business College and is now President of the U.S. (President Wemple, that is).

Richard Kainz - Working on his farm and is still wondering how he got his driver's license.

Eleanor Ketchum - Is married and living in Amsterdam. She's still wondering if she should have accepted that first date.

Norman King - Just starred in a big Broadway production of "Heart Trouble". (Why not, with all his experience in High School !)

Alpheais Lawton - "Don't know, can't tell, if you want to know, look me up somehow".

Blanche Marcellus - Has a job as a secretary, and is still learning to drive.

Maryln Miller - Finally graduated from Cobleskill and is now a dietician.

Eldon Montanye - Tuffy is living in a big mansion, with an undertaking establishment in the cellar. He also has a sixteen cylinder Cadillac.

Gary Montanye - Still trying to grow an eighth of an inch to be qualified for the U.S. Coast Guard.

Ernest Niles - Still in college dreaming about those wonderful days with "Deac", "Doc", and "Little R."

Alvin Ort - Still working on the farm, and wondering what life in Alaska would have been like.

Ann Ropan - Has graduated from Albany Business College and is still wondering how she ever passed Bookkeeping.

Francis Rutkowski - Has graduated from Martin & Rossman, and is now manager of his own grocery store. (He still sells the same beverages.)

Charles Ulrich - He took a P.G. course in 1951, and then extended his education to Bentley College. He's now an accountant for a big firm in New York City.

Joyce Stahl - Happily married, but is still wondering if she should have gone away to school instead.

Franklin Van Evera - Has graduated from Cornell and is now in charge of a big dairy farm in Mayfield Center.

Vivian Warner - Has graduated from Bible School and is still attending Cranberry Creek Community Church.

Helen Williams - Is married and working for the State Agricultural Department. (With her husband, of course.)
